Rules of Camp

- Children must be signed in and out by a parent or guardian. If someone other than the drop-off parent will pick up your child, please inform camp leaders in writing.
- No electronic equipment such as hand held video games, laptops, i-pads, cell phones, etc. are allowed at camp
- No Gum, Candy or peanut products are allowed
- Please label all of your child's belongings
- Do not bring toys from home. We have plenty of activities to keep your child busy.

We encourage behavior that demonstrates respect for others and others' belongings. Diversion and positive verbal correction are used to discourage contrary behavior. A quiet think time may also be employed for a time period that is age appropriate. However, the following behavior will require that your child be removed from camp:

Continued misbehavior after think time is administered

Disrespectful behavior towards staff and/or other children

Biting or aggressive hitting or kicking

Damaging others or club property

Refusing repeatedly to comply with rules

Inappropriate language

Any of the above behavior will not be tolerated on field trips. If misbehavior occurs you may be called to come and pick up your child.

If behavior is a concern the day of a field trip your child may not be allowed to attend and will remain at the club. You will be notified if this occurs.

I have read and understood the Spokane Club Camp Registration and Rules.

My child may be photographed for publicity for Spokane Club Events and for summer camp projects.
